Additions or Changes to the Agenda There were no changes or additions to the agenda.

Celebrations Wagonwheel Elementary School art teacher Shelby Clason, 4th-grade teachers Brienne Gladson, Kayla Fruits, and 5th-grade teachers Revea Smith and LouAnn Izatt, presented an integrated social studies, art, and literacy project with their students. Students showcased their medallions, currency, and weaves they created in art for the bartering/trading in a colonial trade market.

Wagonwheel Elementary was recognized as one of the 2021 National ESEA Distinguished Schools. The Category 2 award recognizes schools that have closed the achievement gap between student groups for two or more consecutive years. There were only two schools in Wyoming recognized for this national award.

Academic Reports Wagonwheel Elementary Principal Eric Stremcha provided an academic report for Wagonwheel Elementary School.

Pronghorn Elementary Principal Clay Cates provided an academic report for Pronghorn Elementary School.

CONSENT AGENDA A motion was made by Mr. Foreman and seconded by Mrs. Durgin to approve all items on the Consent Agenda. The motion carried unanimously.

CONSENT AGENDA ENDS

Graduation Rates

Mr. Eisenhaur provided information regarding graduation rates. The four-year graduation rate of 2020-201 Campbell County School District was 84%. Five and six-year graduation rates were also shared.

Facility Update

Dr. Ayers provided a facility update for Mr. Holmes. The tree removal at Twin Spruce is complete, and there have been many positive comments about the wonderful architecture of the school now that it is in full view. Staff and students enjoy the natural light that comes in through the windows. The Sage Valley Junior High and Paintbrush irrigation updates, Sage Valley main floor bathroom remodel, and the Twin Spruce flooring replacement are upcoming projects.

Public Comments

There were no public comments.

Trustee Celebrations

Chairman Ochs shared how wonderful it is to have strong and solid leadership teams throughout all district departments and schools. She also thanked Mr. Eisenhauer for his work and the committee's planning for the STEM Showcase scheduled at the Complex on May 3.

Mrs. Durgin shared how exciting it is that students are coming back to the meetings for celebrations as it brings joy to the board, and she is very thankful students can share the positive things they are doing in the schools.

Adjournment

With no other business before the board, the meeting was adjourned at 6:58 pm.
